4. The Unit holder needs to specify the start date and the end date in the SWP from. In cases where the start date and end date has not been specified, the SWP will commence from the first transaction date of the subsequent month in which such request is received and will continue till the balance in the account becomes nil.
5. The amount withdrawn under the SWP will be considered as a redemption and shall be converted into units and will be deducted from the unit balance of the Unit holder.
6. The redemption proceeds will be paid by cheque/demand draft in favour of the registered first named Unit holder with the bank account number specified in the application form. The redemption cheque will be posted within normal service standards to the investors. No post- dated cheques will be issued against SWP transactions.
7. A Unit holder who has opted for SWP under a specified account can also redeem or switch his units to any other eligible strategies or any other plans of the same strategies provided he has sufficient balance in his account on the date of such request. SWP will automatically cease in case the balance becomes nil subsequent to such redemption / switch transaction or falls below the required amount specified by the investor for SWP.
8. The Unit holder can put in additional subscriptions, in accordance with conditions specified in the Statement of Additional Information (SAI) and strategies Information Document(ISID)for additional subscriptions in the account anytime during the existence of the concerned account. Such additional subscriptions in no way alter the functioning of the SWP option, unless subsequent request to the contrary is received from the unit holder in writing.
9. Any changes in the amount, frequency or period of SWP should be communicated to the Registrar's office at least 14 days in advance.
10. SWP request in any other form beside the specified format will be treated as invalid and is liable to be rejected.
